LIFESTYLE

Flip it to win it

Will the tension between high-profile exes Tarek El Moussa and Christina Haack derail their dreams of renovation flip success?

THE FLIP OFF

Premieres Thursday, June 11 at 8.30pm on Lifestyle Home [126]

▶ When it comes to flipping houses, few rivalries are as loaded – or as watchable – as that between Tarek El Moussa and Christina Haack. Once the golden couple of renovation TV, the former partners reunite in The Flip Off, a six-episode competition that pits the former couple against one another in the ultimate renovation showdown.

The premise is deceptively simple: each ex leads a team to find, buy, renovate and sell a property for maximum profit. The winner takes home bragging rights and a first-class family holiday (paid for by the loser). But as episode one quickly makes clear, this is anything but a friendly game.

From the opening minutes, the series leans into the emotional and professional baggage that follows when a decade-long partnership ends in a very public split.

Across the season, the teams must tackle the same rooms, including kitchens, bedrooms, living rooms and outdoors, all while sticking to tight budgets and time lines. Every decision is judged on design, craftsmanship and, crucially, return on investment.

Tarek enters the contest with formidable credentials: nearly 1000 flips under his belt and a streamlined renovation operation

“This challenge was healing and life-changing. We’re much closer now because of this experience” ~ Tarek El Moussa, The Flip Off

he now runs with his current wife and on-screen partner, luxury real estate agent Heather Rae El Moussa. Christina, meanwhile, is a seasoned designer known for creating high-end homes.

“This challenge was healing and life-changing,” said Tarek to HGTV.com. “We’re much closer now because of this experience.” Whether The Flip Off ends in triumph or turmoil, one thing is certain: when family, money and history collide, the biggest cracks aren’t in the walls.

COVER STORY

SUBURBAN. CRIMINAL. COMPLICATED.

Melissa George ignites the darkly funny crime thriller Ms. X, where suburban betrayal explodes into cartel chaos, crooked cops and PTA warfare

This sharp, fast-paced crime dramedy stars Australia’s Melissa George (The Mosquito Coast, The Slap) as Mia, a New Zealand suburban mum who suspects her husband is cheating. She ropes in an old high school friend to scare him straight – but the plan spirals into accidental homicide.

Ms. X premieres on Tuesday, June 30 at 8:30pm on Showcase [112]

PURE FOOTBALL

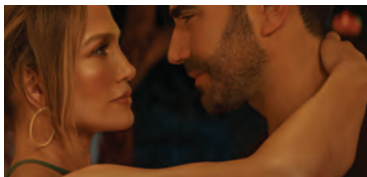

Just in time for the FIFA World Cup 2026™ is Dear England, the inside story of England’s men’s football team

Not just for football fans, this four-part drama is a fictionalised account of the national team’s trials and tribulations, inspired by James Graham’s Olivier Award-winning play. Joseph Fiennes reprises his acclaimed role as Gareth Southgate, the manager tasked with transforming a team long defined by near misses.

Dear England premieres Thursday, May 28 at 8.30pm on Showcase [112]

Glinda and Elphaba soar in Wicked: For Good, the fantastical sequel to the smash hit musical

Global film sensation Wicked thrilled audiences globally and won two Oscars and now Wicked: For Good completes the two-part feature film adaptation of the beloved Broadway musical.

The film expands the story to deliver a satisfying emotional close for lead characters and best friends-turned-enemies (or are they?) Elphaba and Glinda, played by Cynthia Erivo and Ariana Grande.

While the first film introduced back stories for the witches in training, the sequel weaves in the characters of L. Frank Baum's The Wonderful Wizard of Oz, with Elphaba (the so-called Wicked Witch of the West), and Glinda, the Good Witch of the North, remaining at the heart of the tale.

Jon M. Chu directs a cast including Jeff Goldblum, Jonathan Bailey and Michelle Yeoh, delivering spectacle complete with new songs and heartfelt moments that make this unmissable for fans old and new.

Wicked: For Good (PG) premieres on Saturday, June 27 at 8.30pm on Movies Premiere [401] or watch On Demand.

LIGHTS OUT

From Darwin to Monaco, June delivers a run of high-stakes sport and, according to Fox Sports' Jessica Yates, it's a stretch worth clearing the calendar for

MOTORRACING 360

Wednesdays in June at 7.30pm AEDT on Fox Sports [506]

► Winter is coming, and it brings with it a packed schedule of live sport. Fox Sports host of MotorRacing 360 Jessica Yates says it's all about seeing the full picture.

From uninterrupted Supercars coverage in Darwin to every session of Formula 1 in Monaco, this seasoned sports journalist will be watching closely as seasons hit a critical point. With form lines emerging and finals looming, she's got her eye on some key events.

“Fox Sports makes sure that when a wheel turns on track, you see every moment of the action and get the full picture”
~ MotorRacing 360 host Jessica Yates

As a familiar face across Supercars and Formula 1 coverage, Yates' watch list blends insider insight with pure fan energy. And this month, she says, it is all about commitment. “I am all in,” she says. “If Monaco is on, I am blocking everything out. It is lights out to the chequered flag. That is the only way to do it.”

Repco Supercars Championship betr Darwin Triple Crown (June 19-21)

The Darwin round marks a turning point in the Supercars season. “It is a bit of a halfway marker,” Yates says, pointing to the shift from cold southern rounds to the heat of the Top End. Hidden Valley Raceway's old-school layout delivers hard racing and a clearer read on title contenders.

Expect strong showings from Broc Feeney, Will Brown and Brodie Kosteki, with pressure mounting across the field – drivers like David Reynolds could be dangerous under pressure. “It's one of those old-school, hardcore motor racing facilities. The racing is always fantastic,” adds Yates.

Every practice, qualifying session and race live with no ad-breaks during racing from June 19 on Fox Sports.

On My Watch List

Formula 1 Louis Vuitton Monaco Grand Prix 2026 (June 5-7)

Few events carry the magnitude of Monaco's Grand Prix. Jessica Yates will be clearing her schedule. “If you can win on the streets of Monaco, there's something special about it,” she says. The appeal lies in its history and its risk, and with regulation tweaks in play, the weekend could be defined by unpredictability. “The consequences for mistakes are massive,” notes Yates. Charles Leclerc looms as a favourite on his home track, with George Russell and Oscar Piastri key contenders.

While Monaco steals the spotlight, Spain and Austria continue the European run.

Both races offer a chance to track how teams adapt to evolving regulations and carry form between circuits with very different demands. See every race live in 4K Ultra HD from June 5-7 on Fox Sports.

The 2026 US Open (June 18-21)

The US Open delivers pressure and prestige in equal measure. Yates points to its ability to deliver defining moments, with Rory McIlroy her pick of the course. “He's fast becoming one of those iconic sporting personalities,” she says. Watch every round live and exclusive from June 18-21 on Fox Sports.

Suncorp Super Netball Finals from June 20; Grand Final July 4

Expect high-speed, high-pressure match-ups for the 10th anniversary season finals. “You will not find fiercer competitors,” Yates says. Every game live in 4K Ultra HD from June 20 on Fox Sports.
