Actor Helen Thomson shares what to expect from Season 3 of globally acclaimed Foxtel Originals Colin from Accounts

COLIN FROM ACCOUNTS (SEASON 3)

Premieres Monday July 27 at 8.30pm on Showcase [112] or watch On Demand ► Awkward relationship comedy Colin from Accounts returns after a cliffhanger ending to season 2, when Gordon (Patrick Brammall) put it all on the line with an unexpected proposal to Ashley (Harriet Dyer). Audiences are dying to know: are these two unapologetically flawed human beings even able to find true happiness?

The show, created by real-life couple and creative collaborators Brammall and Dyer (pictured above

Actor Helen Thomson (pictured inset, right in her role as Ashley's narcissistic mother Lynelle) has a theory on why it works so well. "It's authentic; we're not trying to be American or British. It's rare for something to land like this – not

"It's not just comedy – it has heart. It can be funny, moving, even sad. You really care about the characters, even when they're flawed" just in Australia, but globally. That surprised all of us," she reveals.

When she read the scripts for Season 3, Helen says, "I was thrilled. Without giving too much away, a lot has happened. Lynelle has definitely been busy!"

She's tight-lipped about exactly what's coming up for the characters, but is delighted to return to her role as Lynelle. "As soon as you read the lines Patty and Hari write, you think, 'I'm home,'" she says.

AUSSIE BAKE-OFF

BAKE IT TO MAKE IT

Turn on your ovens and grab your aprons – it's time for a new season of Foxtel Originals The Great Australian Bake Off. Our new bakers take their place in the magical Bake Off shed, delivering warm, feel-good escapism with spectacular baking creations and passionate amateur talent.

Judged by culinary icons Rachel Khoo and chef Darren Purchase, Bake Off might even inspire you to step into your own kitchen...

Or should we say, shed?!

The Great Australian Bake Off premieres on Tuesday, August 11 on Lifestyle [106], encoring on Lifestyle FOOD.

PARADISE LOST

Sun, secrets and simmering tension fuel this addictive holiday-gone-wrong drama. Set against the shimmering beauty of a Greek island, Two Weeks in August follows Zoe (Jessica Raine), who hopes a long-overdue getaway with family and friends might help her reclaim a sense of joy. Instead, what begins as a sun-drenched reunion spirals into an emotionally charged pressure cooker. Leila Effat and Hugh Skinner (pictured above) also star.

Two Weeks in August premieres at 8.30pm on Wednesday, August 12 on Showcase [112] or watch On Demand.
